SPM Profile

SPM was founded in 1991 on the principle that management of strategic projects is a core enterprise competency. This vision grew out of the founders' extensive experience leading complex, mission-critical projects.

SPM is valued by enterprise and mid-market clients for its rare combination of leading-edge expertise and objectivity, highly responsive client service and great value for money.

Recognized for the many contributions to its field, SPM has also strategically partnered with like-minded organizations such as the Richard IVEY School of Business.

The firm has the skills, experience and passion of any of the large consulting firms with the personal touch and attention to detail of a boutique company.

SPM is proud of the awards won over the past years including the 1st Annual Small Business Skills Development Award from the Conference Board of Canada. President Catherine Daw has three times been named to the list of Top 100 Woman Entrepreneurs by Profit magazine.
